

- 11:30-12:30 Seminar 4: Speak On Fleek: Contemporary Slang 1.0 hours
Speaker: Kathryn Thomas
- Yeet, woke, ratchet, mood, thicc ... WHAT is yourchild/grandchild/nibbling talking about?? Add new terms to your dictionary, fam, as you're served the (metaphorical) tea. You will learn new words sufficient to embarrass the young person in your life. Don't be basic! It'll be lit!
- 12:30-12:45 Break
- 12:45-2:15 Seminar 4: Our fingers do the talking 1.5 hours
Speaker: LeAnn Hibler and consumer panel
- Join us for an always-insightful discussion with CART consumers about how our captioning services help them participate in their world.
- 2:15-3:15 Seminar 5: ILCRA Town Hall 1.0 hours
Speaker: Kathryn Thomas, Georgia Long
- We will get an update on what is going on in the state and what potential legislation ILCRA will be dealing with. This is your opportunity to ask your leaders about the state of the state
- 3:15 – 3:30 Break
- 3:30-5:00 Seminar 6: Change happens: Using your skill set to move from one area of reporting to another. 1.5 hours
Speaker: ILCRA Panel (Kathryn Thomas, Georgia Long)
- The skills of a reporter allow for an individual to move between careers within the industry. You will hear from your fellow reporters who have made the jump and how they did it. If you are looking to utilize your skills in a different arena, this is a can't miss seminar.
- 5:00-6:30 Seminar 7: There is always a next prize! 1.5 hours
Speakers: Melanie Humphrey-Sonntag
- Whether you're aiming at 100 wpm, RPR, RMR, or Contest-level participation, testing tiers have a lot of similarities, including taming jitters, building skill, practicing well, aiming high, and managing expectations along the never-ending quest for the next rung. Share Melanie's successes and pitfalls along her own journey as you train yourself to keep your eye on the next prize – because there's ALWAYS a next prize!

Total: 10.0 Illinois CSR Hours/ 1.0 NCRA CEU